Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Minnesota State Horticultural Society, 1892, Vol. 20 Its officers shall consist of a president, one vice-president from each congressional district, a secretary, a treasurer, an executive committee of five, and a librarian. Article V. Duties Of President And Vice-Presidents. The president shall preside at and conduct all meetings of the society, and deliver an annual address, and in his absence the vice-presidents, in their order, shall perform the same duties. They shall also have a general supervision of the horticultural interests in their respective districts, and make a written report to the society at its annual winter meeting; in consideration of which the society shall pay their traveling expenses to the same. Article VI. The Secretary. The secretary shall record all the doings of the society, collate and prepare all communications, etc., for the public press, and pay over all moneys received from members or otherwise to the treasurer on his receipt; receive and answer all communications addressed to the secretary, establish and maintain correspondence with all local, county, district and state horticultural societies, and secure by exchange their transactions, as far as possible; aid the president as an executive officer in the dispatch of business relating to the meetings of the society, take notice of horticultural and similar meetings of general interest, and report to the annual meeting of the society an abstract of the matter that has come, into his possession, which, with its approval, shall become part of its transactions of the current year. Article VII. The Treasurer. The treasurer shall collect and hold all funds of the society, and pay out the same only on the order...
