The comparatively small, though honorable audience, on whose indulgence I thought I might rely in the Council Chamber of the City, has grown into this great assembly. The occasion which seemed, at first, only a quiet municipal recognition of a Sacred Anniversary, has put on national proportions, by the Proclamation of the President, recommending its universal celebration. With no proper preparation in former studies, with no time to make that preparation now, with as little expectation three days ago of standing here to lead your thoughts to the reflections appropriate to this day, as of being called to lead our national, our gallant and victorious armies, I despair of doing justice either to you or to the hour. Pardon the words which must be utterly inadequate, but which shall be heartfelt and true. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
