Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.It was a bright, sunny day in Jacksonville, Florida. Just outside of the city, a small group of college students were taking a stroll on a trail through a forest. Since it was a hot summer day, the pals didn't mind climbing down into the stream. They felt around under the water and found an old-fashioned coffin and found a decomposing body. I grew up in Chariton, Iowa, graduating from Chariton High School in 2004. In 2009, I finally enlisted in the US Army for three years. I was an ammunition specialist, and I was stationed at Fort Carson, Colorado. I even spent nine months in Iraq (February-November 2010). After completing my enlistment in 2012, I moved to Southington, Connecticut, where I currently attend Lincoln College of New England. I'm majoring in mortuary science, and I also plan to go for a bachelor's degree in funeral service management after receiving an associate's degree in mortuary science (which I should receive in spring 2015). I collect marine animal items (particularly fish and dolphins), angel items, and snow globes. In addition to writing stories, other things I like to do in my spare time include lifting weights, going for walks (especially in cemeteries), listening to music, and spending time with my cat, Kiki.
