By Howard Roger Garis

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 60 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in.Excerpt: . . . scores of sled runners, that process would not take long. The really swift and exciting coasting, however, would not begin until the bill was worn smooth and icy. Roger and Adrian joined the happy throng of young people. Like the others they dragged their sleds part way Pg 122 up the hill, and then, leaping skilfully upon the narrow board, they slid down, going faster and faster as they gathered momentum. The hill was two miles in extent, but none of the youngsters cared to go to the top to get the benefit of the long slide. It took too much time to walk up, and they preferred the more rapid, though shorter skimming over the snowy surface. It isnt very good yet, said Adrian, as they reached the bottom of the slope, after an invigorating ride. Wait two or three days, though, until the sun thaws it a bit, and it freezes some more, and then youll see coasting that is coasting. Youll see a race that I bet you never saw one like before. What kind of a race A two-mile...
