Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from War Memoranda: Cheat River to the Tennessee, 1861-1862 It is in the power of gifted writers to make the literature of war extremely attractive. The horrid panorama of battle, well portrayed, possesses a fascinating interest for every one. The science of war, including that of fortification, requires the highest application of the exact sciences, and the best skill of well educated minds. In its practice the greatest variety of detail is brought into play, sustained by personal courage and the highest exhibition of human energy. The occasional use of ths personal pronoun is liable to the charge of egotism. I think it preferable to the use of the present writer, the narrator, or the author, which are open to the same objection, and also to that...
